

Glenamadda Gleanings – 2008 and 2009

I missed the 2008 yearly letter. My husband Geoffrey Hunter died suddenly of a heart attack on December 4, 2008 - for his special page see www.geoffreyhunter.com

However I like to think his last year was a busy and happy one. In February 2008, Susan and Geoff and a friend Patrick drove to New York with our Irish Wolfhound Raleigh to attend Westminster. Geoff and Patrick toured the city while I babysat Raleigh at the show.

In March/April 2008, Susan and Geoff and her sister Joyce took a train tour of New Zealand and afterwards took the short hop (ha ha) to Adelaide to visit with friends John and Sue Lewington and also to see Raleigh's daughter Veronica who now lives there. Roni recognized me!!!

The rest of the year was spent attending dog shows in various parts of the country. Geoff accompanied me to many of them and in late November 2008 took photos all day at a racing meet.

The three of us had booked a South American cruise for February 2009, and Susan and her sister Joyce carried on with the cruise, remembering Geoff at many of the stops along the way.

In September 2009, Susan and Joyce visited the Agawa Canyon on the train tour to see the fall colours. Susan and Geoff had visited many years before but it was well worth the repeat trip! This time Susan was able to climb to the top of the lookout about 330 stairs.

Best wishes for the Holiday Season and for a prosperous New Year.
